10 CENTS PER WEEK

SUBSTANTIAL GAIN IN THE CLEARINGS

Marks Business Week Which Closes Today.

Same Week Last Year Ran Ahead
of Preceding Year—Little New in the Situation.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REPORT

Bank clearings $828,523
Same week last year 725,701

Increase $102,702

The increase this week shows a big gain over last year. And the gain is substantial because the same week last year showed a gain over the year before.

The week in the business world is unmarked by any special event. The discontinuance of the practice of rebating railroad fare by the merchants is noteworthy, and in the Berkopf case, affairs have been further cleared up by the election of a trustee.

The wholesale houses have an unprecedented volume of business. The movement of candy and luxuries out of this city indicates that the farmers have plenty of money. At the wharf and on the river, business is heavy but is retarded somewhat by a scarcity of labor.

In retail lines, the fine weather has delayed fall and winter shopping somewhat in the city, though many out-of-town shoppers have visited the city in the week.

Bradstreet's Report.

New York, Nov. 10.—Bradstreet's weekly trade and business report follows:

That greater confidence resulted from the election, is marked by the advances in the wages of railway employees; greatly improved collections;
large filling in orders, indicating heavy consumption; good business on spring accounts; continued security of labor; record breaking outputs of iron and steel, which were the pre-eminent features of the week. The retail trade has been active, business from jobbers larger than ordinary and the wholesalers report heavy orders booked for spring delivery. Advances as to collections are more uniformly good than at any previous time this season.
Industry presents as active an appearance as ever and labor is getting higher returns. All in all, the situation is one of immense activity and engerness, despite the fact of staples generally show advancing tendencies and index numbers are at highest point for at least 20 years.

Prices for pig iron continue to advance, the increase ranging from 25 cents to $2 per ton. The western makers of cast iron pipe, which is up $2 a ton, have booked a record contract. Light rails have been advanced $1 per ton. War iron is up to $1.80 at Pittsburgh, but lower figures are quoted in competitive territory. Lake copper advanced to 22 1/2 cents a pound, a record price, on very heavy for delivery next year.

The position of manufactured textiles was apparently never stronger than at present.

Wheat, including flour, exports
for the week, 1,156,000 bushels, against 3,522,000 bushels this week
last year. Corn exports, 71,000 bushels, against 751,000 bushels, a year ago for the fiscal year 1905, 15,187,000 bushels against 19,738,000 bushels in 1905.

ASSISTANT FIREIGHT AGENT.

Eugene Smith Becomes Head of Department of N. C. & St. L.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Eugene
M. Smith, of this city, has been appointed assistant general
freight agent of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway. He is a son of Vice President and Traffic Manager H. F. Smith, of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway.

MIDGET CONSTABLE ELECTED.

Smallest Officer in United States Defeats 200-Pound Opponent.
Boonville, Ind., Nov. 10.—James H. Vincent, the smallest constable in the United States, has been re-elected in Boon township by an increased plurality. He defeated his 200-pound opponent in a lively race.

VALE FACULTY SPARES HEARST

Prohibits Students' Mock Funeral Procession—Mourning Defeat.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 10.—The faculty of Yale today prohibited a mock Hearst club celebration planned by students. The students were to wear yellow ribbons as badges of mourning and march to the football game behind a band which was to play a dead march.

Hold Up Immigrants.

Peru, Ind., Nov. 10.—Hold-up men boarded the Wabash express train
here at midnight and entered a car filled with immigrants. At the point of revolvers they robbed the first man they encountered of $60 and escaped.

BRIDE KILLED

GRUOM FATALLY INJURED ON THEIR HONEYMOON.

Serious Wreck on Baltimore & Ohio Near Cincinnati This Morning Early.

Loveland, O., Nov. 10.—The Baltimore & Ohio express was wrecked near here this morning, caused by a split switch. The engine and four coaches left the track. One coach turned over. Brakeman Billings was caught between the cars and instantly killed. J. Bennett and wife, of Illinois, on their honeymoon, were both fatally injured. Mrs. Bennett died on the way to a Cincinnati hospital.
Twelve other passengers were injured and sent to Cincinnati.

STRANGER

AND THEY TOOK HIM IN FOR THIRTY DOLLARS.

When J. W. Gullett "Came to" He Was Minus His Belt and Scenes of His Friends.

J. W. Gullett, a stranger, found when he came to himself last night
at 12 o'clock that he was minus $30
in cash which he had tucked away
he thought securely in his vest pocket.
He was out for "a night of it" and judging from his plight when he reported to Patrolmen Terrell and Brennan, he succeeded. He does not know how it happened but stated he remembers being some where in the rear of the New Richmond hotel drinking with strangers. He did not know whom he had been with. The police have no clue.

PREDICT GENERAL WAGE RAISE

Wall Street Reports Say Railroads and Corporations Will Act.

New York, Nov. 10.—It was said
in Wall street today that practically all the great railroad and industrial corporations of the country, the affairs of which are directed from this city, have decided to increase the wages of their employees. It was predicted that the action of the Pennsylvania railroad management in increasing the wages of its army of 165,000 men nearly $12,000,000
would soon be followed by all the important railroad and industrial corporations of the United States.
The Standard Oil company has decided to increase the wages of its 60,000 employees in different parts of the United States. The increases will be carried out through the company's subsidiary corporations.

MAY RETALIATE.

Fish May Seek Presidency of Mutual Life.

New York, Nov. 10.—Stryvesant
Fish may retaliate on the insurance ring for his deposition as Illinois Central head, by becoming a candidate for president of the Mutual Life, of New York, on the policyholders' ticket of 100.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

NAPOLEON HAYS HAS ONE MAJORITY

Close Race For Governor In McCracken County

McCreary, Hendrick, Winfrey and Crenshaw Carry County—Others No Opposition.

OFFICIAL CANVASS OF VOTE

Senator McCrery carried Mc-Cracken county by 153 votes at the Democratic state primary and Napoleon Hays by 1 vote. Hon. J. K.
Hendrick, for attorney general, carried the county by 1,510; W. O.
Winfrey, for state school superintendent, by 4; and R. C. Crenshaw, for commissioner of agriculture, by 325. The other candidates had no opposition.

The official canvass of returns
have been made by the campaign committee, and Chairman W. A.
Berry will certify the returns to the state committee.

The official vote is:

QUAIL SEASON

OPENS WEDNESDAY AND HUN-TERS ARE GETTING READY.

"Lots of Birds" Is Report Coming From Every Direction and Plenty of Sport Promised.

The season for quail shooting opens next Wednesday and every Nimrod
in the county has been busy the past few days cleaning up his shooting irons, laying in a supply of ammunition and preparing for the good times ahead. Long ago, the wise ones spotted their hunting places, and all of them know just where to go to bag a big number of birds.

The reports from everywhere are of a great number of quail this year, and the sport does promise to be the best the sportsmen have had since the terrible steel storm about five winters ago, when nearly all of the birds were frozen out. From this county, from Ballard and from down
the N. C. & St. L. railroad come reports of "lots of bird" and the impatient hunters can hardly wait.
With a few more days like the weather of the past two weeks the sport should be keen.

HINSHAW'S FOLLY.

Paroled Wife-Murderer Became Involved in Another Scandal.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—Rev. W.
E. Hinshaw is in custody of a prison guard and was taken back to the Michigan City prison today to resume his life sentence for the murder of his wife. Hinshaw's parole was revoked by Governor Hanly on Hinshaw's admission that he had been on good terms with a boyhood sweetheart, now Mrs. George Freeman.

COTTON REPORT.

6,892,597 Bales Ginned, as Against 6,457,595 Last Year.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The amount of cotton of the crop of 1906 ginned up to November 1, according to a bulletin issued by the census bureau, was 6,892,597 bales, counting round bales as half bales,
as against 6,457,595 last year.

A REIGN OF TERROR AT RIO GRANDE CITY ON MEXICAN BORDER

Fort Worth, Nov. 10.—Reports from Rio Grande City are to the effect that a reign of terror exists. People are under arms. Another clash with Mexicans is expected. Rangers, after killing four Mexicans yesterday, escaped. However they have the situation well in hand. Troops of cavalry from Corsicana will arrive tonight.

VERDICT FOR WIFE OF CRUTCHFIELD

Recovers $2,000 From City
For His Death

Crutchfield Fell Off Sixth Street Island Creek Bridge and Broke His Neck.

NEWS FROM THE COURT HOUSE.

The jury in the case of Addie Crutchfield, administratrix of Thos.
Crutchfield, against the city of Paducah, returned a verdict for $2,000
this morning.

The plaintiff sued for $10,000 damages for the loss of her husband's life. He fell over Sixth street island creek bridge, from a bicycle and broke his neck, and his wife alleges the accident was due to lack of protection to the public.

The case of Leah Johnson against the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Insurance company, was dismissed and settled. She sued for $2,000, a policy on her husband, the late Mendol John son.

The case of W. N. James against

The case of William Powley against the Paducah Cannage company was dismissed and settled.

Election Commission.

The election commissioners,
Sheriff John Ogilvie, Attorney J. S.
Ross and Mr. William Farley, finished canvassing the returns in the city and congressional elections and will this afternoon make out the totals. Certificates are being made out for the candidates today by Judge Ross but the report of the commissioners will probably not be filed today. Sheriff Ogilvie stated that no material changes were made in the vote. Few mistakes were found.

AMERICAN IN FRENCH PRISON.

Three Months' Term for Running
Auto Over and Killing Women.

Chateau d'Un, France, Nov. 10.—
A man named Kingsland, aged 22, living in New York, was sentenced today to three months' imprisonment, without the benefit of the first offenders' act, on the charge of involuntary homicide in running an automobile over and killing a woman, 51 years of age, in the village of Marthon, June 28.

Pope to Hold Consistory.

Rome, Nov. 10.—The pope has decided to hold a consistory December 6.

SHOT HEARD

THEN FOOTSTEPS, AND BLOOD-STAINS ARE FOUND.

Mystery Surrounds Shooting at the Court House About Midnight—Prisoners Awakened.

A shooting mystery is puzzling
officials about the court house.

Last night about 12 o'clock a pistol shot rang out in the court house yard. Prisoners in the jail were awakened. They were locked in their cells and could not get to the windows to look out but heard sounds like hurrying footsteps. This morning a pool of blood was discovered at the entrance to the court yard on the Sixth street side. It was in front of a plank laid across two pieces of casing used in constructing the concrete entrance posts.
From indications the wounded man
sat down to steady himself.

Prisoners at the jail washed the blood from the new concrete walk before it made a stain.

LIES HELPLESS UNTIL AID COMES

Isham Harvey Falls From Wagon and Breaks Ankle

Neighbor Woman Hears His Groans
and Summons Assistance—Condition Serious.

WAGON HOLDS HIM PRISONER

Thrown from his wagon and jammed between the wheels and the gate of his yard at 1017 Madison street, Isham Harvey, laid helpless
for a half hour with his ankle bone broken short off this morning, until Mrs. Jacob Straub, of 1014 Harrison street, went out into her back yard
about 8 o'clock and heard his groans.

The back yards of the Harvey and Straub homes adjoin and when Mrs.
Straub heard the groan she looked over the fence. Harvey's horses were standing still, but their master was prostrate and helpless. Mrs. Straub summoned help and the injured man was taken into his home. Drs. L. E.
Young and L. F. Graham attended him.

Harvey had attempted to swing
the gate shut as he drove out and became overbalanced and fell.

Show's Ultimatum.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw has issued a formal statement today in which he said unless conditions materially change he will not refund, buy bonds, increase deposits, or do anything else in the way of putting out government money.

Investigate McCrery.

New York, Nov. 10.—The Democratic state committee adopted a resolution providing for the investigation of the conduct of the Kings county Democratic organization, headed by State Senator McCrery. It is alleged that McCrery "knifed" the head of the ticket and urged his followers to desert him.

TEXAS RANGERS

ARE AMBUSHED BY BODY OF ARMED MEXICANS.

Trouble Grows Out of Their Being Supplied With Certificates of Registration.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 10.—Four Texas rangers, sent to Rio Grande
city, Starr county, to quiet the turbulent political conditions there and to investigate the assassination of District Judge Welch, which occurred
the night before the election,
were ambushed by a body of armed Mexicans between Fordyce and Rio Grande City late last night.

The rangers were asleep in their camp, when they were awakened by a volley of shots from the darkness.
A pitched battle ensued and four of the attacking party were killed, one fatally wounded and two captured.
The rangers escaped unscathed.

Governor Lanham today ordered a company of cavalry to Rio Grande
City and a special train took them
there.

The situation was brought about
by the alleged election irregularities,
due to political clubs, supplying Mexican residents with poll tax receipts and insisting that they be allowed to vote.

HARRIMAN

Lines Have Ordered $21,000,000
Worth of New Rolling Stock.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The tomorrow Tribune will say: Prompted by the congestion of traffic and car shortage
this year, the Harriman lines have ordered $21,000,000 worth of refrigerator, box, flat and gondola cars
all of which, it is expected, will be delivered before the season of heavy traffic next year. The total number of freight cars ordered, but not delivered, is 16,600.

I. C. Special Ditched.

Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 10.—The Nashville special on the Illinois Central, bound for Chicago, was ditched near here this morning. A number of persons were injured, but none killed.

WILL REBUILT Hardin Bank and Hardin Herald to Have New Home.

The Hardin, Marshall county, bank which burned a short time ago, will be rebuilt at once. A modern two-story brick will be erected on the site of the burned building. The Hardin Herald will also resume publication January 1, 1907. The plant was destroyed with the bank.

General Shafter Ill.

Bakersfield, Cal., Nov. 10.—Major General William R. Shafter, U. S. A., retired, is seriously ill with pneumonia at his ranch, 11 miles south of Bakersfield. Shafter took a turn for the worse today.

FIFTY-EIGHT

IS THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN THE NEW CONGRESS.

Figures Correspond With Prediction Made on Thursday Before the Election.

New York, Nov. 10.—The Republican congressional campaign committee closed its headquarters this afternoon and Sherman said tonight:
"The result of the congressional campaign throughout the country is exceedingly gratifying to this committee. The Sixtieth congress will be Republican by 58 majority. These figures correspond exactly with the prediction given out by the committee on Thursday before the election."

DO GIRLS ACCUSED OF STEAL-ING DIAMOND PIN.

One Lives at Boaz and the Other at Greenville, Tenn.—Both Held
to Next Grand Jury.

Lala Taylor and May Johnson, who were recognized in police court yesterday for appearance before the grand jury for grand larceny, will sin no more—at least they promised Police Judge Puryear this and agreed in addition to go home. In fact the girls were more than anxious to go home. Attorney Wheeler Campbell made a strong appeal in his speech in the girls' defense yesterday, and moved them both to tears. This with the gentle reprimand and sound advice of the court served to decide them. The Johnson girl went home to Boaz station this morning, and the Taylor girl will leave this afternoon for her home near Greenville, Tenn. They are charged with having taken a diamond from a "traveling gentleman," but the diamond has not been seen and the evidence is circumstantial.

ANOTHER DASH.

Mrs. Peary Believes Her Husband
Will Continue Quest.

New York, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Robert E. Peary, wife of the arctic explorer, is sure that her husband will make another try to find the pole, according to a Portland, Me., dispatch to the World. Mrs. Peary has just returned to Portland and is waiting word from Commander Peary where she is to join him. "I hope and sincerely believe that my husband has not given up the fight to reach the North Pole, and when he goes again
I shall go with him as far as I can," Mrs. Peary is quoted as saying. "If he can get within 300 miles of the goal I am sure that he is not going to give up, and I know he will be able to win out if he tries again."

Typhoid Fever Epidemic.

Minster, O., Nov. 10.—A typhoid fever epidemic prevails here. Sixty cases are reported and 20 deaths have occurred. The contagion is not due to the water supply and physicians are puzzled.

WEATHER — Generally fair tonight and Sunday. No decided change in temperature. The highest temperature, reached yesterday was 73 and the lowest today was 41.

MANY DIPLOMATS WILL BE CHANGED

When Meyer Enters President Roosevelt's Cabinet.

Secretaries of Legations Will Be Kept Moving—New Philippine Assembly.

BASEBALL CRAZE IN PANAMA

Washington, Nov. 10.—Diplomats who are watching with great interest the prospective changes in the American diplomatic service must wait until the president's return from Panama and Porto Rico to have their curiosity gratified, as Secretary Root has announced that the state department will not take any action during Mr. Roosevelt's absence.

Since the announcement of the purpose to appoint to a cabinet position Mr. Meyer, and the selection of Lloyd Griscom, now at Rio Janeiro, to fill Mr. Meyer's place at St. Petersburg, there have been many predictions as to Mr. Griscom's successor in Rio Janeiro. Charles Page
Bryan, the minister to Portugal, Rio Janeiro, is frequently mentioned as the most likely candidate for the Brazilian post.

It is generally conceded that Minister Barrett, now in this country, will not return to Bogota, and Leslie Combs, the American minister to Guatemala and Honduras, is mentioned for the Colombian post. At the last session of congress provision was made for the American mission in Santo Domingo. No appointment to this place has been made as yet, and there is also a vacancy in the secretaryship of the American mission at La Paz, Bolivia.

Many changes in the secretary-ships at European missions are also contemplated, in accordance with Secretary Root's plan to keep the secretaries moving and thus give them an opportunity to study many countries and prevent them from getting into a rut.

New Philippine Assembly.
Manila, Nov. 10.—According to the proposed election law, the coming Philippine assembly will consist of eighty-one members representing each one a population of 90,- 000. The election of members of the assembly is to be held July 1, 1907, and the assembly is to convene within ninety days after election. The delegates are to be granted constitutional immunities and are to be allowed to hold no other office or to accept an appointment
to an office created by the assembly, or one whose emoluments have been increased during the term of the delegate.

The assembly is to make its own rules and elect a speaker and a recorder. The salary to be given to the recorder is 20 pesos per diem for actual days in session. The Philippine commission will submit the proposed law to public discussion after November 25. The election must be ordered by the president after March 27, 1907, the expiration of the two years of peace provided in the act of congress.

Baseball on Isthmus.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Baseball
has taken Panama by storm since the arrival on the canal zone of large numbers of enthusiastic American fans. The love of the sport has spread from the marines, clerks and other employees of the Isthmian canal, and the commission and the social leaders of Panama have placed their stamp of approval upon the great American game.

FELL UNDER THE WHEELS

Ten-Year-Old Boy Killed by a Street Car at Owensboro.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 10.—Herbert Ramsey, aged ten years, son of Mr.
and Mrs. J. E. Ramsey, was killed Thursday evening by a street car passing over his abdomen. The boy, with other playmates, was stealing a ride on the car, when he slipped and fell under the wheels. The funeral will take place Saturday morning.

Costly Blaze at Scranton.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 10.—Fire this morning destroyed several business blocks in the heart of the city. The loss is estimated at a-half million.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Tuesday Night—"15 Minutes from Broadway."

Friday Night—"A Crown of Thorns."
Saturday Matinee and Night—"The Girl of the Streets."

Corinne as Mary.

One of the most notable theatrical entertainments booked for the present season in this city is George M. Cohan's fascinating music play, "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," which comes to The Kentucky on Tuesday night, with Corinne as the star supported by a noteworthy company under the direction of Klaw & Erlanger.

Corinne plays the part of Mary, a servant girl in the Castleon household in New Rochelle. This suburb is just 45 minutes from Broadway by rail, and this circumstance gives the piece its title. Revolving about Mary in the development of the story are a young millionaire, a sou-

the piece and it also abounds with specialties.

Robert Edson as an Essayist.

Robert Edson, who has displayed literary aptitude in several one-act plays, will shortly make his debut as an essayist. He has accepted the offer of a well-known magazine for a series of articles contrasting the commercial and artistic aspects of the theater. Mr. Edson is more than ordinarily capable for the task, for before his adoption of the stage as a career he had a well-grounded knowledge of the business end of theatrical enterprise, having fled every position in a theater from program boy to manager.

"The Daughters of Men."

"The best all around performance given in Boston in years" was the verdict of the Boston Herald upon the interpretation of Charles Klein's

brette, a mercenary mother, a villainous stock broker, many minor characters and Kid Burns, a young Broadway boy of street smarts and noble heart, who expresses a great deal of practical philosophy in most entertaining slang. This role, the opposite to that played by Corinne, is acted by Scott Welsh, who has made a great individual success in it.

"Crown of Thorns."

There is too much pathos and sentiment in real life and often too much of the tragic, consequently a play that contains thrills and surprises that are naturally conceived and coherently illustrated and possessing an abundance of wholesome comedy and a grateful absence of stage horrors in the tragic and pathetic lines is more eagerly sought after by the more intelligent class of play-goers. "A Crown of Thorns," the comedy drama that is billed to appear at The Kentucky Friday night is free from all the stereotyped melodramas that are fast tripping the up-to-date play-goer. Its pathos is not intense enough to produce tears nor are its climaxes blood-curdling, but it contains enough heart-interest and natural thrills.

"Girl of the Streets."

Few melodramas of the last three seasons have had so great a measure of success as "Girl of the Streets," which will be seen at The Kentucky on Saturday matinee and night. The work possesses many lasting qualities which guarantee it life for many years. Miss Katherine Crego, who heads the cast, made a very close study of "Kitt," the girl of the streets, and for six months before the production of the play, went to New York and lived in the slums there studying the life, habit, manners, characteristics and slang of its inhabitants, and visited all the scenes introduced in the play. Great care was taken in giving the play the necessary atmosphere and the production is a complete one. The first act shows the beautiful home of Nan Meadows, the second act is a true reproduction of a New York counter-fitting den while the third act shows New York City on a winter's night, and the last act gives one a very good idea of the inside of Sing Sing prison. There is considerable of the comedy element all the way through.

O. F. PHILLIPS, Agent
Both Phones 1153-A.

There is another play at a new Shubert house in town, of which as much cannot be said in praise. It is called "The Love Route," and is a comedy drama of Texan life in which the hero seeks to build a railway through the heroine's ranch against her will. Enmity ensues, only to be brushed aside at the end, when the steel rails are laid and the engineer and landed proprietress are wedded. "The Love Route" employs the services of Guy Standing, Odette Tyler, Olive May, Herbert Ayling and some others who have already gained the friendly consideration of this community.

Forbes Robertson and Gertrude Elliott, in George Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," won something that closely resembled a triumph at the New Amsterdam Theater on Tuesday evening. In this play Cleopatra is a young girl who is placed upon the throne through the kindly and paternal interest of the great Caesar. The youthful Cleopatra has never before been presented to our gaze, and the gentle and considerate Caesar has heretofore been a stranger to us. We find both personages exceedingly agreeable and quite human, and that is saying a good deal for Mr. Shaw's treatment of characters of early history.

Miss Eleanor Robson who is to remain all the season at the Liberty Theater, will change her bill on Monday, November 19, in accordance with the policy of the management. The Zaigwill comedy, "Nurse Marjorie," might beyond any question run a long time. The title and character of the next of Miss Robson's plays will be announced shortly. — Leader Richardson.

TO KEEP WELL IN WINTER.

Always remove the fur and loosen the coat when entering a house or shop, if only for a few minutes; dress warmly for outdoors and lighten the clothing considerably when in the house.

Keep the house at an even temperature all over, so that the family need not live in one close room in order to keep warm, and then freeze in the halls.

This rule is particularly necessary when there is a sick person who must otherwise be forced to remain in one room all the time or run the risk of catching cold in drafty places.

Do not sit in a heated room all day without opening one of the windows every few hours to let out the stuffy air and freshen the apartment. As many illnesses are caused by imperfect ventilation as from too many drafts.

Have plenty of fruit on hand, and if the children are too hungry to wait until mealtimes give them an apple, which will not hurt the appetite for the coming meal.

When rising in the morning draw several deep breaths in the fresh air to fill the lungs anew, and keep the mouth closed as much as possible when out of doors, depending entirely upon the nostrils for breathing.

See that a good warm breakfast is provided for those who must go out early, and insist upon promptness from the partakers. If a number of servants are not at hand to attend to keeping the dishes hot, Luke-warm coffee, cold potatoes and the like are neither appetizing nor good for one on a cold morning.—Philadelphia Ledger.

COMMONWEALTH LIFE INSURANCE CO., Louisville, Ky.

Gentlemen: I today received through your Superintendent $100 in payment in full of policy No. 10910 on the life of my husband, William Parry, who died on Thursday, and I desire to thank you for your promptness in settling this claim.

This policy was in force only eight months, but as it was in FULL IMMEDIATE BENEFIT, the entire amount was paid.

Your Company is the only one that issued a policy with this provision. The other companies would have paid me only $50 instead of $100.00, which I received from you.

Again thanking you for your promptness, I am

Very truly yours,

SOUVENIRS.

I'm looking over the little store
Of trinkets I have had for ages;
But which is what, I have forgot
And blank are all my mental pages.

This dainty fan! Did lovely Anna Misplace the toy between the dances
While sitting out at some old rout,
Or did I get the thing from Frances?

And here's a rose, but goodness knows
To name the girl I am not able.
At least a day I cannot say
If it was worn by Maud or Mabel.

This little shoe, a number two—
Is it a souvenir of Flora?
Was it laid down, or Angelina's,
Or did it once belong to Dora?

What winsome dove once wore this glove?
Did I purloin the thing from Jenny,
Or did I steal it from Lottie?

Alas, poor girl, she hadn't many.
Before our tender ties were broken?

This bit of lace! Did pretty Grace
Bestow it on me as a token?
Or did I beg the shred from Mag,
Before our tender ties were
broken?

These souvenirs bring back the years
When one arrived at life's September.
I have a lot, but which is what
Or which is which I can't remember.

Announcements.

The Delphic club will meet on Tuesday morning in the Carnegie library assembly room.

The Barheim club will be entertained by Mrs. Edwin Rivers, of South Sixth street, on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. George Holliday and Mr.
Clarence Henschelberger will give a dance Thanksgiving eve at the Red Men's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thompson issued invitations today for a dance at the Palmer house on Wednesday evening, in honor of their bridal party.

The Matinee Musical club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the Ragie club house, on Broadway. The leaders are Miss Corinne Puryear
and Miss Leola Puryear. A Wagner and Strauss programme will be rendered. Hebrew and Biblical music will be discussed.

Nash-Nash Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Nora Nash
and Mr. Maurice B. Nash, Jr., both of Louisville, was quietly solemnized today at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Col. and Mrs. L.
H. Nash, in Louisville. The Rev.
Charles Cralke, dean of Christ church cathedral, performed the ceremony.
Mr. Powell Nash, a brother of the groom, was the best man. Among the out-of-town guests for the ceremony were: Mrs. Maurice B. Nash, of Paducah, mother of the groom, and Mrs. David Lindsey VanCull, of Paducah, sister of the bride. After a wedding trip to Cincinnati and St.
Louis where they will visit Mr. Nash's sister, Mrs. Franklin Leavitt, and aunt, Mrs. J. W. Williamson, they will come to Paducah en route to Louisville, their home.

Mr. Nash is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Nash and has grown up in Paducah, having lived in Louisville only a few years. He is universally popular here. His bride has often visited in Paducah her sister,

Mrs. Morrow and Miss Morrow at Home.

Mrs. Sallie Morrow and Miss Emily
Morrow are receiving their friends
this afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock at their home on Jefferson street. It is a pretty occasion with much charm of effect and detail. The reception hall is a color scheme of red with red shaded lights and many plants. Red cushions are the flower. The punch bowl is effectively arranged in the alcove under the stairway. Mrs.
Hubbard S. Wells and Miss Kathleen Whitefield are stationed here.

In the parlors where the white and green idea is artistically carried out with white chrysanthemums and plants. Mrs. Morrow and Miss Morrow are assisted in receiving by:
Mrs. David C. Wright, Mrs. James
M. Hucker, Mrs. David G. Murrell,
Mrs. Berlie F. Campbell, Mrs. Charles E. Richardson, Mrs. Ed G. Boone.
The white and green color motif is prettily carried out in the dining room where the refreshments are all white. In this room are: Mrs. Hal
S. Corbett, Mrs. Edward L. Atkins,
Mrs. Margaret Emery and Mrs. Lillie Rieke Boyd, receiving the guests.

Pretty Dinner Party.

Miss Helen Hills was the gracious hostess at a charming dinner party on Friday evening at her home on North Ninth street, in celebration of her birthday. The table was beautifully with American Beauty roses and lilies and pretty girls. The menu was a delightful one and covers were laid for: Misses Nella Whitefield, Jean Morris, Marjorie Loviag, Elizabeth
Schroer, Mary Cline, Mary Gregory, Helen Pow II, Henri Alcott, Mildred
Sorel, Mary Bonbrant, Katherine Powell, Lillian Hobson, Helen Hills.

A Call to Paducah Women.

A Woman's club for Paducah! Do not smile, there are many women's clubs in Paducah but no Woman's club. If you do not catch the difference, just wait and learn, for really that long-felt want at last seems about to be met and a Woman's club with all its power, possibilities and potentialities for Paducah and her growth and uplift, is on our threshhold. At least a meeting is called for Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Palmer house dining room, for the women of the city to meet and organize one. It may be possible that Mrs. Charles Weaver, of Louisville, the president of the Woman's clubs of Kentucky, who will be in Paducah on Thursday, can come to Paducah, also, and help in the organization.

The Woman's club will have four departments: Civic, Literary, Musical and Charity, each separate and distinct but one membership will admit to all four branches and their advantages. It will mean Civic Improvement, lectures, concerts and work in developing the city along many lines not selfish or self-centered culture, as well as aiding the poor.
Just now without a charity club, this is badly needed. All women are invited to be present on Thursday and lend their interest to this effort for the city's lifting in with other large cities. In other places the Woman's clubs are the meeting grounds for women of diverse interests and each contributes to the knowledge of her sisters with whom she labors. These are no social gathering places; but many, who perhaps would not otherwise know each other are brought in touch and gain thereby.

One thing that Women's clubs have accomplished elsewhere and is much needed here is to have its own building. Here lectures, concerts and semi-formal affairs can be given.
Recently the Matinee Musical club of the city could find no suitable place
to have a recital that was hardly large enough for The Kentucky. The Woman's club here when well established, hopes to have its own quarters ready for these demands, and with a suitable auditorium will soon be self-sustaining. The Woman's club house in Louisville is in demand for various purposes, social and otherwise and pays well.

Cotillon Club's New Plan.

A business meeting of the Cotillon club will be held Monday evening at the office of Mr. Frank Boone, when the officers for the new year
will be elected, and the plans adopted. It has been the custom of the club heretofore to give two dances a month, but there are a great many of the club members who are in favor of having only one dance a month, and making the dances more elaborate affairs than has been the custom. They propose to have favors and refreshments, and give the dances on fixed dates, announcing the dates at the first of the season. If the idea is adopted a dance will be given Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year, Valentine night and one after Easter, and each will be a favor cotillon. Mr. Louis Rieke, Jr., is president of the club and Mr.

Everett Thompson secretary.

Pretty Club Affairs.

Mrs. Hughes McKnight and Miss
Sarah Sanders entertained the Sans Souci club and the Entre Nous club
very delightfully on Friday afternoon at Mrs. McKnight's home on West Jefferson street. The only visitors were out-of-town guests.
The Sans Souci prize was won by Miss Clara Thompson and Miss Nell Holland captured the Entre Nous prize. Mrs. Burton, of Denver, Col., received the visitors' prize. An attractive course-luncheon was served after the game.

The guests were: Mrs. P. A. Martin, of St. Paul; Mrs. Burton, of Denver, Col.; Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. James Campbell, Jr., Mrs.
Harris Rankin, Mrs. Allen Ashcraft, Mrs. Henry Rudy; Misses Kinloe, of New York; Marshall, of Missoula; Lexington, of Clinton; Purcell, of Lexington; Marjorie Crumblough, Lula Reed, Fath Langstaff, Lena Dollar of Princeton; Clara Thompson, Hattie Terrell, Frances Terrell, Nell Holland, Frances Wallace, Retta
Hathfield, Frances Coleman, Rella
Coleman, Ethel Brooks, Marjorie Bagby, May Owen, Mary Scott, Kate Crumblough, Lillie May McGlathery.

Magazine Club.

Mrs. Victor Voris entertained very charmingly at her home on West Broadway on Thursday afternoon in honor of the Magazine club. The house was most attractive in a color-scheme of yellow, with Jack-o'-lanterns, pumpkins, yellow chrysanthemums
and leaves lending a pretty autumnal touch. It was an elaborate affair, with a number of outside visitors
and the full complement of club members. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. P. A. Martin, St. Paul;
Mrs. Burton, Colorado Springs;
Miss Kinloe, New York; Miss Marshall, Missoula; Miss Richmond, Clinton.

Appropriate to the "yellow"
scheme much of the afternoon's discussion was of William R. Hearst.
In his various characterizations.
Mrs. J. C. Flournoy handled the "Man of Mystery" from the American magazine viewpoint, and Mrs.
Ell Inoue from the Outlook. Mrs.
Frank L. Scott gave an interesting resume of the North American Review and Mrs. George Flournoy discussed the Atlantic Monthly. The Harper's magazine was reported by Mrs. Vernon Blythe and Miss Martha Davis.

A four-course luncheon was attractively served on small tables.
The dining room was a symphony in yellow and the out-of-town guests were seated at the center table, which was effectively decorated.
The menu emphasized the yellow motif.

Reception to Dr. and Mrs. Newell.

A very delightful affair was the reception given by the ladies' societies of the Broadway Methodist church on Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the parlors of the church. It was a pretty farewell compliment to the Rev. and Mrs. T.
J. Newell and family, who have made such a host of friends here during their four-year stay. The parlors were effectively decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and a yellow color-scheme was carried throughout. In the receiving line were: Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Newell, Miss Virginia Newell, Miss Happy
Newell, Master Edward Newell; Mrs. V. O. Sweetman, president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society; Mrs. J. K. Greer, president of the Home Mission society; Mrs.
George Warfield, president of Ramsey society; Mrs. William Eades, president of Junior Warden Missionary society; Miss Martha Davis, president of Newell society. Coffee and light refreshments were attractively served.

A large number of the church and many outside friends were present
during the hours. Also the ministers of the city and their families.

P. D. C. Club.

Miss Elizabeth Hoswell is entertaining the P. D. C. club this afternoon at her pleasant home in Arcadia. The club is composed of a number of the younger society girls and flourished all last winter. The name of it may be changed this afternoon.

For Out-of-Town Guests.

A handsome affair was Mrs. Henry Wells' course-luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Broadway. The honor guests were Mrs.
Altmeier, of San Francisco, and Miss Stella and Fannie Levy, of New Orleans, who are visiting their sisters,
Mrs. Adolph Well and Mrs. Herman Friedman. The house was attractively decorated with white chrysanthemums and green, and the eight tables of handsomely rowned women enhanced the effectiveness of the occasion. The prizes were numerous and elegant. Miss Adele Harris won the first prize, a Hungarian ornament. The lone-hand prize a pie-ture, was captured by Mrs. Herman Wallerstein. Miss Stella Levy, of New Orleans, received the visitors' prize and presented it to Mrs. Altmeier. The consolation prize, a hand-decorated plate, went to Mrs.

Louis Levy. The pretty luncheon was in three courses and emphasized
the white and green motif.

The guests were: Mrs. Altmeier, San Francisco; Misses Stella and Fannie Levy, New Orleans; Mrs.
Herman Friedman; Mrs. Joseph
Hecht, Mrs. James Wells, Mrs. Louis
Levy, Mrs. Herman Wallerstein, Mrs.
Jacob Rosendick, Mrs. B. Wells, Mrs.

Enjoyable Tacky Party.

Miss Irene Curd was hostess of a merry "Tacky Party" on Wednesday evening at her home on Broadway.
The prizes for the most unique costumes were captured by Miss Endora Farley and Mr. Oswald Cheek.

In the guessing contest of the registered trade marks of large foreign firms, the prize was awarded to Mr. Paul Barnes. Popcorn, peanuts, apples and ginger cakes were the appropriate refreshments served during the evening.

Those present were: Misses Carrie Boyer, Annie Eades, Edna Eades, Eunice Robertson, Helen Schaffer, Elizabeth Williamson, Annie Wil-
hamson, Cora Richardson, Endora

Cotillon Club.

The Cotillon club gave a delightful dance on Wednesday evening at the Palmer house. It was in compliment to a number of attractive visitors in the city. The German was led by Mr. Louis Rieke, Jr., and those dancing were: Mr. and Mrs. James Luedbeck, Mrs. George A. Flournoy, Mrs. Robert Williams, of Memphis; Misses Hattie Richmond, of Clinton; Annie Marshall, of Missoula; Virginia Kinloe, of New York; Pauline Purcell, of Lexington; Carrie Phillips, of Pittsburg; Katherine Schaffer, of Pittsburg; Ethel Brooks, Frances Wallace, Frances Coleman, Della Cole-

glas Nash, Douglas Bagby, Wallace
Well, W. L. Sturtevant, Harry Tandy, of Frankfort; Joe Exall, John Brooks
Fred Wade, Edward Hirschurst, Frank Davis, Dr. I. B. Howell.

Crescendo Club.

The Crescendo club met on Thursday afternoon at the studio of Miss Virginia Newell on North Seventh street. Rossini and the opera "Wilhelm Tell" were the subjects for study. Miss Eunice Robertson gave a sketch of Rossini, and Miss Newell told the story of William Tell. Several musical numbers were played and current musical events were freely discussed.

The next meeting of the club will be on Thursday, the 22nd. It will be devoted to "Famous concertists who are now in America." The musical program will be an elaborate one and the overture from William Tell will be rendered.

Pleasant Evening.

Miss Elizabeth Williamson, of 1315
Langstaff avenue, entertained a number of her friends most pleasantly on Tuesday evening. Games and music were features of the evening and delightful refreshments were served. Among those present were:
Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkinson, Mr.
and Mrs. C. Wilkinson, Mrs. Harrison, Misses Oberhansen, Rolles, Wilkinson; Messrs. Artie Roe, Vera Phillips, Sanders Miller, Elytt Parkerson, Lynn Martin, Will Lem Head,
Herman Hemphill, Eric Brake, Goebel Wilkinson, George Harrison.

U. D. C. Chapter.

The November meeting of the Paducah chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held with Mrs.
Mary Burnett, of West Broadway, on Tuesday afternoon. The officers for the year were elected: Mrs. James Koger, president; Mrs. John L. Webb, first vice-president; Mrs. Mary Burnett, second vice-president; Mrs.
William T. Anderson, third vice-president; Mrs. William J. Gilbert, recording secretary; Miss Mary K.

Sowell, corresponding secretary;
Miss Kathleen Whitefield, treasurer;
Mrs. Louise Maxwell, historian. Mrs.
Joseph W. Thompson, who has been the chapter president since the organization, was made honorary president for life, a pretty compliment for her splendid service. Tea and cakes were served by the hostess.
Miss Mary K. Sowell is the December hostess of the chapter.

Five Hundred Club.

Mrs. Henry L. Bradley entertained
the Five Hundred club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Jefferson street. It was strictly a club affair and the prize was won by Mrs.
L. A. Washington. A delightful course-luncheon was served.

The club will hereafter meet every two weeks, and Mrs. John W. Keller is the hostess for Wednesday, the 21st.

Standard Club.

The handsome rooms of the Standard club were thrown open on Thursday evening for the first of the series of encores that are such attractive features of pleasure for the club
during the winter. Miss Jessie Fitz captured the ladies' prize and Mr.
Mike Michael the gentlemen's prize.
It was a delightful occasion with a large number present.

Anniversary Celebration.

The Ladies' Mite society of the First Baptist church celebrated their 35th anniversary on Thursday evening in the church parlors. It was a pleasant social occasion and was largely attended. The decorations were in autumn leaves and ferns.
A musical and literary program was rendered by: Mrs. Lella Wade Lewis, Mrs. Henry Daley, Miss Corinne Puryear, Miss Rose Thurman and Will Reddick. Delightful refreshments were served.

Delphic Club.

Two interesting discussions of Cordova in Spain occupied the attention of the Delphic club on Tuesday morning. Miss Helen Lowry is out of the city, but her able paper
"The Callahate of Cordova," was read by Mrs. Frank Scott. "Abdur Rahman—The City and the Palace Az-Zahra," was graphically described by Mrs. A. R. Meyers.

Social Evening.

The Senior Epworth League of the Broadway Methodist church held a pleasant social and literary evening in the league parlors on Monday evening. Four-minute talks on "What Life Means to Me" were made and light refreshments were served. A large crowd was present, including a number of visitors.

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given to Mr.
and Mrs. Louis Quicksel, of 118 Clement street, by a number of their friends on Monday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music, and a delicious luncheon was served.

Snitting Party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Jackson, Miss Hortense Tharman, Miss Rose Thur-
man, Miss Flossie Thurman; Messrs.
William Davis and A. D. Roberts were a party that spent Monday over at the Illinois lakes fishing and snitting. It was an enjoyable day.

Weddings.

The marriage of Miss Mildred
Soule and Mr. William K. Coolidge, of Memphis, Tenn., will be solemnized on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will be a pretty home wedding and will take place at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Nelson Soule, on North Fifth street. Rev. T. J. Newell, D. D., of the Broadway Methodist church, will perform the ceremony, and Mrs.
Samuel H. Winstead will play the wedding music. The attendants will be Miss Lucyette Soule, sister of the bride, and Miss Julia Dabney.

A reception will follow the ceremony. The couple will leave at 6
p. m. for Chicago and points in Wisconsin and will make their home in Memphis.

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Dora Hummel and Mr.
William Rottinger, Jr., on Tuesday evening at the German Lutheran church. Rev. A. I. Ilen officiating.
The ushers were Messrs. Robert

Looney, George Boyer.
A reception from 8:30 to 10:30
followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Hummel, Jr., the bride's parents, on Harrison street. Both the house and the church were effectively decorated in white and green and the bride was gowned in white organza over white.
Mr. and Mrs. Rottinger are at home to their friends on the Cairo road.

A special from Jackson, Tenn., says: "An elaborate wedding took place at 6:15 o'clock Thursday night at the First Methodist church, the contracting parties being George Tinker, a prominent young business man of New Orleans, and Miss Marie

Daily Thought.
"Those who can find recreation in their work know what is at the end of the rainbow."

"Standpatters" is the term come to mean in popular parlance those, who regard the Dingley law as a fetish, intrinsically perfect and unaffected by conditions. No great man in the Republican party, the party of protection, has ever so looked upon any tariff measure. Blaine, Garfield, Clay—all favored reciprocity and a variable scale. William McKinley, ardent protectionist from the manufacturing center of Ohio, in his last public utterance gave warning of a necessity for revision, Roosevelt but recently enunciated the true doctrine of the "standpatters." The tariff is not sacred; but under it the country has prospered and its terms as it stands are better than no tariff. When the revision comes it will give rise to differences of opinion in party ranks and absorb popular and legislative interest to the exclusion of all else. During the last session of congress there was urgent and important legislation that admitted of no delay. To have precipitated a tariff discussion would have been to read the death warrant of the pure food bill, the meat inspection bill and railroad rate bill. Some hasty Republicans evinced a desire to take the Dingley bill down from the shelf and off and see what sections are out of date and need fixing, but the eagerness with which the Democratic congressmen gathered around the tariff cabinet gave the tip to the Republican leaders and they passed the word to "let well enough alone—to stand pat." Of course, disappointed in the prospects of a nice scrap and perhaps a few desirable provisions in the new tariff law for their districts, the Democratic members did the next best thing—they said the Republicans were not in favor of revision at all, and called them "standpatters."

The outcome was that the tariff remained untouched for the session and the country prospers.

The word "standpatters" is applicable in the sense that the Republicans still believe in the principles of the protective tariff. So do the Louisiana Democrats as far as it affects sugar; the Ohio Democrats as far as it affects wool, and each according to the staple of his particular section. Evidently the Democrats believe the tariff affects trade conditions, else they would not talk so much about free trade. We have protective tariff and the country prospers. That is sufficient argument for its retention.

If the tariff does foster prosperity, then when it needs revision, it should be revised by those who are in favor of the principles on which it is based.

There will be some lively tilts between Republican statesmen when the tariff debate is opened and Democrats will take sides as oppos-itantly offers to create a schism in the Republican ranks or injure the tariff law. That is politics, and John Sharp Williams knows politics. That is the reason why the tariff revision was held up until some other matters were out of the way—to keep the other matters from being held up as a hostage for a compromise on the tariff. We don't want any tariff compromise, Cleveland had a "congress on his hands" that compromised the tariff.

The tariff will be revised in good time when all other needed legislation is duly passed, but it will be revised by the Republicans, and the principles of protection will be adhered to. Meanwhile, the country will go on prospering until the tariff may be handled in safety without danger of having John Sharp Williams juggle the elbow of the Republican house leader and cause him to smash the Dingley bill on the floor.

CLOSE COMMUNICATION.

There was significance in the statement made yesterday by a retail merchant, that the rebating of railroad fares is especially effective in increasing the out of town trade in cities in which interurban traction lines center. Paducah, isolated from the great cities; almost equidistant from Louisville, Nashville, Memphis and St. Louis—and a good distance to be—only lacks close communication with this territory which she may rightfully claim as all her own, to make her its metropolis in every modern sense of the term. Paducah needs a northern connection for the N. C. & St. L. and a foot stage in the Ohio river, so that the steamboat lines and patrons will be assured of an all-year-around traffic, with through traffic between Cairo and Pittsburgh, and a deep channel from here to Chattanooga in the Tennessee. These are sure to come.

Equally sure, but not so immediately in prospect, are the interurban lines, and it behooves Paducahans to institute an organized effort to induce the necessary capital to take up the project. It requires money and time and patience to build any kind of a railroad, and the sooner we start the sooner our hopes will be realized. With traction lines and cars running every hour of the day to the towns in west Kentucky, so that people may go and come as they please, they will naturally come to the largest city to purchase their goods in the largest stores, which have the largest assortment. This increased patronage will demand still larger stores with larger stock. Larger stores make a city look larger and when we make strangers believe we have a large city, it will not be long before their opinion will be verified.

Let's get to work on that interurban proposition. In the meantime, the retail merchants should not discontinue their rebating system. It has attracted out-of-town buyers and the scheme is as yet only in its infancy. Don't desist in any effort that promises to help Paducah attain the position to which she is entitled.

Near Fern, Ind., last night two hold-up men entered a car filled with immigrants and robbed the occupants. The day before a lone bandit robbed two dozen passengers on a train running between Kansas City and Chicago. Such feats are enough to bring the blush of shame to our cheeks. What must be the opinion of this country formed by the first impression on the minds of refugees from foreign countries seeking a haven in the land of the free?

The "unwritten law" is quoted as the excuse for a Louisiana congressman-elect assassinating a prominent physician in cold blood. Now, if the state will show to the world that in this instance the "written law" is just as drastic and efficacious, society will be its debtor. There is a modern tendency to construe that "unwritten law" too liberally.

An Owensboro girl was told by a fortune teller that she was threatened with impending disaster, and directed her to cross his palm with a handful of greenbacks, which were afterwards hidden away in a secret place for three days. At the end of the three days the disaster befell—the greenbacks disappeared.

Just this one brief commendation for Hearst—he is responsible for the Republicans of New York picking out their best man for governor. Hearst represented that ultimate condition under which the worm turns.

We trust the non-linkable host sent along with the Louisiana was not made by the same concern that constructed the proof building material.

However virtuous Willie Hearst may be he is not among the elect.

BISCHOFF TO DIE

FOR WIFE MURDER

Date For The Execution Is December 7.

Judge Nunn Is Ill and There Was No Quorum of the Court of Appeals Today.

KILLED AUNT FOR REVENGE

Bischoff to Hang Dec. 7.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 10.—The death warrant in the case of Jacob Bischoff, the Louisville wife-murderer, whose sentence to hang has been affirmed by the court of appeals, was issued today at the state executive department, and forwarded to the sheriff of Jefferson county. It fixes Friday, December 7, next, as the day for the execution to take place.

Corset Stay Saved Her.

Richmond, Ky., Nov. 10.—While out driving this morning, Miss Mary Little, one of Richmond's most popular girls, was shot by an unknown person and seriously wounded. A physician was hastily summoned. An examination showed that Miss Little had been shot in the left side just under the heart. Had it not been for a corset stay changing the course of the ball Miss Little would have been instantly killed.

Fires in the Mountains.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Nov. 10.—Reports have reached this city of disastrous forest fires which have been raging in Morgan county during the last week. The dry weather has caused the timber to burn rapidly, and the fire has swept everything before it. The fire is creeping near the large Cannel City coal mines of Bigstaff & Cockrell, and all the cabins and buildings are in danger of being destroyed. Hundreds of panes of fence have been burned and much valuable timber. The loss will reach thousands of dollars, and there is no telling what the result will be if rain does not come in a short time or the people cannot check the onward rush of the fire.

Judge Nunn Ill.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 10.—Owing to the illness of Judge Nunn there was no quorum of the court of appeals present, and the session was continued until Tuesday. Judge Nunn is not dangerously ill.

Killed His Aged Aunt.

Falmouth, Ky., Nov. 10.—George Newkirk, a young farmer living four miles from Falmouth, is under arrest. It is charged that he shot and killed his aunt Mary Cookendorfer a woman nearly seventy years old. She had accused Newkirk of stealing some of her turkeys a few days before, and he, resenting the charge, went home, got his shotgun and walked by where his aunt lived and emptied the contents of both barrels into her body, killing her instantly.

Ambition is only the desire to be the other fellow, and then go him one better.

HUNT FOUND GUILTY.

Jury Decided Ignorant Manager Committed Larceny.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Dr. Truman K. Hunt was found guilty of petit larceny by a jury in the criminal court yesterday afternoon, at a late hour, and sentenced by them to serve 11 months and 29 days in the workhouse of Shelby county. The conviction was secured on the testimony of Dengay, a blooded ignoramus, who was one of the 48 members of that savage tribe who were exhibited in the United States by the defendant for several months.

HURT HORSES' MOUTHS.

Reins Are Too Tight and Bits Produce Sores.

Humane Officer Tom Sanders has discovered that draft team drivers keep the reins too tightly fastened, working sores on the mouths of horses, and has personally remedied several cases. The habit is prevalent principally among negroes who tighten the outside rein for the purpose of easy turning. Officer Sanders has lately adopted a regular route which he "makes" each day. He goes to the city stables and about the market house inspecting horses.

Railroads Indicted.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 10.—Indictments have been returned by the special federal jury, which convened in Minneapolis October 22 to investigate alleged freight rebates. In the case of the railroads the indictments contained 147 counts. The minimum penalty for conviction in each case is $1,000 and the maximum $2,000. None of the interested railroads expected that any indictments would be returned against them. Each company had disclaimed, with apparent sincerity, the possibility of any criminal act in their relations with the grain companies, concerning which their employees had given testimony before the jury.

High Building to Wind.

New York, Nov. 10.—The Singer building, now building on Broadway near Liberty street, which will be 625 feet high, the tallest skyscraper in the city is to have wind anchors so that it may be firmly braced against every gale. The wind pressure, on account of the structure's great altitude, will be tremendous, and for that reason the building is to be literally tied to its foundations by an ingenious arrangement of steel rods.

Wife Will Tell Everything.

Nek York, Nov. 10.—Some interesting evidence is promised when the case of Harry Thaw, charged with the murder of White, is called here. It is now said that Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the wife of the slayer of the architect, realizes that in order to free her husband she will be obliged to tell the entire story of her relations with the victim of Thaw's bullet, and that she will give some startling testimony when placed on the witness stand.

Von Moltke Chancellor.

New York, Nov. 10.—A Berlin special to the Times says it is believed there that what is known as a "chancellor crisis" is imminent. Leading newspapers assert that Emperor William contemplates the appointment of Count Von Moltke, chief of the general staff, as Prince Buelow's successor.

The Rigors of Cold Weather.

Probably at no time of the year does the physical condition of the body demand more attention than just at this season, the beginning of cold weather.

Let the system be run down, or the blood impoverished to any extent and the cold weather goes hard with you. Naturally the thing to do is to get the circulation in good order, and the whole system toned up to stand the rigors of winter.

Some physicians prescribe the daily cold bath, others seek recourse in blood tonics and other stimulants, but, probably the most rational treatment of all is the Osteopathic, as Osteopathy more quickly, and more effectively rights the blood flow and restores normal conditions than any other known treatment.

Osteopathy is only a natural treatment, a method of bloodless surgical manipulations to remove any obstructions interfering with the proper transference of nerve force, or natural blood flow, or the other fluids, to the organ or part involved.

I should like to have you call and let me tell of some Paducah people whom you know well that Osteopathy has done much for, and also to tell you what it will do in your particular case.

CHANGES IN CABINET.

Two Resignations as the Result of the Recent Election.

Christiania, Nov. 10.—The minister of finance and customs, E. Hagerup-Bull, and the minister of agriculture, A. H. Vagle, have resigned and have been succeeded respectively by M. Burge and M. Aarstad. These changes in the cabinet are an outcome of the recent election, which resulted favorably to the Leftists. The new ministers are prominent Democrats.

First Aid for Novelists.

As he spoke to her there was in his voice a burst of passionate resentment. She smiled a derisive smile. He thereupon stood up to his full height and towered above her. This would have disconcerted some girls, but not her. She let her eyes drop. He was startled out of himself. She immediately pulled herself together with a mighty effort. Which made him lower his voice to a whisper. She responded by tossing her head in the air. At this his heart almost ceased to beat. But he superbly controlled himself.

As she turned to leave the room he instinctively followed her. There was a pause. And a silence. Maddened by his silence, a sigh escaped her ruby lips. She had never been more radiant than on that evening.

He remarked this to himself. Suddenly he lost his head. At the same moment she threw her head on his shoulder. We will now leave them to themselves.—Life.

An Imported Chaser.

In South Africa candles are used for lighting purposes in the home, and when a young Boer maiden has a gentleman visitor, the mother sticks a pin in the candle, and when it has burned to the pin the callers understand that it is time for their departure.

Mrs. Early, a society matron of Washington, recently made a visit to the Transvaal, and was so impressed with the custom of the Boers that she determined to introduce it into her own home. Consequently the electric lights were removed and candles substituted in the drawing room.

Mr. Staylate, a frequent, though not always welcome caller, was one of the first visitors to call after the inauguration of the new custom. He witnessed the placing of the pin in the candle by Mrs. Early, and after she had gone ventured to inquire: "Why, Miss Early, does your mother stick a pin in the candle?" "Oh," responded the young woman with an air of apparent innocence, "another learned that in South Africa as a way of sending home the bores."—Harper's Weekly.

Guard Secrets of North.

New York, Nov. 10.—On board the steamship Hellig Olav, which will sail tomorrow for Christiania, are two zinc boxes, guarded by four armed guards. They contain the records made by Captain Rold Amundsen, who sailed for Christiania three years ago and located the magnetic pole. From a study of the record, which will take fully three years, Captain Amundsen says that the exact location of the magnetic pole will be determined. Photographs were made of the needle for nineteen months by an automatic photographing instrument made especially for the expedition.

Where He Was Dry.

The Rev. Mr. S— was by many considered somewhat tedious in his delivery. On one occasion, after being hooked to preach at a camp meeting, he was caught in a sudden shower. He appeared at the appointed time quite wet.

As he was excusing himself to the camp manager, a waggleh cleric brother said:

"Oh go on up in the pulpit. You'll soon be dry enough there."—The Bohemian for October.

VOICE OF PEOPLE

VICTORY IN DEFEAT.

Whether smarting under the sense of defeat or experiencing the elation which attends upon victory, there comes a period for sober second thought, to those who think at all, in which defeat may, to a certain extent, partake of triumph and victory carry with it elements of humiliation and regret. As we now chew the cud of political reflection, be it bitter or sweet, it is well to consider whether Paducah has lost or gained by the election last Tuesday which resulted in retiring from the general council those members whose terms expire December 31. Assuming that in the personality of the candidates upon the two tickets presented, there was no choice, still, the following questions arise: Has the cause of good government gained or lost in the exchange? Has the process of introducing sound business principles into the affairs of city government been encouraged or extinguished? Has the progress of the city been advanced or retarded?

It is not necessary to supply an answer to these questions, as each reader may reply to them in his own mind as his judgment, now undisturbed by campaign excitement, may dictate. No charge has ever been made that the present general council was not absolutely upon the side of good government in all that the term implies. It is a sad commentary upon the social and political conditions existing here in Paducah that this was one of the reasons for the failure of the Republican ticket. The acts of the general council in refusing to grant licenses to disorderly saloons and the expressions contained in the platform pledging the support of the general council to the mayor in suppressing questionable resorts of all kinds, were sufficient to array, and did array, an element, which is found in all cities, against the ticket.

The present general council also believed that it was proper to introduce into the affairs of the city, the same careful regard for sound business-like principles, as those which characterize the sane and successful business man in the conduct of his personal affairs. These methods were sufficient to array, and did array, against the ticket the populist, socialistic and anarchistic elements which have found a footing in this city and which, fortunately for the best interests of the city, are more notable for the noise they make, than for their numbers.

The present general council had also expressed itself in deeds, as well as in words, that it was for a progressive city; that it believed in a comprehensive sewerage system, in the extension of paved streets and sidewalks, in the installation of a park system and in all other things tending toward the establishment of Paducah upon an equal footing with other cities of the same class in the state. This position upon matters of vital importance was sufficient to array, and did array against the ticket all of those reactionaries, who have for years been setting the brakes upon the wheels of Paducah's progress cityward. With all of these elements arrayed against the Republican ticket, it is pertinent to inquire, whence came the support which was accorded to it to an extent that a change in little more than half a hundred votes would have re-elected every alderman and every councilman?

It came from the God-fearing home-loving citizens, from the progressive and substantial business men and from those who have the interest and progress of their home city truly at heart. And in this assurance lies the victory even in defeat. On the other hand the defeat of the victors, the fly in the amber for those gentlemen who were elected, rests in the quality of their support. Try as they may, they cannot avoid or repudiate their constituency, nor can they escape from its influence. It will stick to them even as the Old Man of the Sea clung to the shoulders of Sinbad the sailor, and unless they be exceedingly strong and watchful the burden which they are thus forced to bear will cause them to stumble as they proceed along the official pathway which now open before them.

A HOLD-OVER.

SLICKS FAST IN THE BATH TUB.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 10.—The zinc lining of the bath tub at the county poor farm became bare of enamel in spots and the other day Superintendent D. D. Jackson sent a man to town to buy some "white enamel." He received a package of enamel, never thinking that only a special brand is used for bath tubs.

He carefully cleaned the tub and applied a coat of the enamel. It soon dried and left the tub with a snowy interior. Mr. Jackson showed his work to his wife and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Fisher, and modestly received their words of praise.

The next day he desired a bath, and filling the tub with warm water reduced full length in it. He was tired and under the soothing influence of warm water fell asleep. He awoke with a start, dreaming that an Apache had seized him by the hair and was about to scalp him. To his surprise he could not lift his head. Then he essayed to move and found that the soles of his feet were glued to the end of the tub and that his limbs were held to the bottom in the same manner. Even his arms were loosened from the side of the tub with difficulty. He managed, after suffering a deal of pain and parting from small patches of cuticle, to extricate his feet, legs and body, but the tub clung tightly to his hair and he had to howl for help. In order to get into the bathroom, where his liege lord was held prisoner, Mrs. Jackson had to force a hook off the door. Then she took a pair of scissors and cut the hair which stuck to the paint, after the warm water had softened it. Now Mr. Jackson will have the "enamel" scraped out and the genuine article placed in the tub by an expert.

EDWARD'S BIRTHDAY.

British Sovereign Celebrates Sixty-Fifth Anniversary.

London, Nov. 10.—King Edward is today celebrating his 65th birthday quietly at Sandringham, surrounded by his family. He is in excellent health. Many congratulatory messages reached his majesty during the day, and many valuable presents were received from the aversigns of Europe and personal friends. The customary salutes were fired by the warships at the naval centers.

"Home Sweet Home" Cottage.

New York, Nov. 10.—The little thatched cottage in East Hampton, L. I., in which John Howard Payne, author of "Home Sweet Home," lived in his early years, and which, when he was a wanderer on the face of the globe, inspired his immortal ballad, is to be destroyed. The site on which it has stood so many years has been purchased, and the structure will be torn down and a church erected in its place.

Miners Get Increase.

Bisbee, Ariz., Nov. 10.—All miners employed by mining companies at Bisbee and Tombstone have received notice of a raise in wages, to date from November 1. The scale has been advanced 25 cents a day all around. Miners now receive $3.75 a day, shaftmen, $4.25, the first motion holding engineers, $5.25. The new scale means the payment of half a million dollars more each year by mining companies.

Confagration Threatened.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—A big fire in the Valley Coal docks today threatens to consume all its property in South Chicago. A general alarm summoned engines from miles away.

Crawled Into Fire.

Huntington, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Left alone in a room the three-year-old child of Mr. Williams crawled into the open fire place and was burned to death.

You can generally tell the age of a man by the amount of sentimentality that he develops in the spring.

IS COINCIDENCE OF SIGNIFICANCE

Several "Standpatters" Are Defeated For Congress

Chairman Griggs, of Democratic Committee, Believes Next Issue Must Be Tariff.

DISTINCTION OF KENTUCKY

Washington, Nov. 10.—The standpatters in the house fared very badly as the result of the election. Chairman Payne's vote was greatly reduced in New York; Dazell, the second man on the committee, had his majority cut down one-half; Grosvenor was defeated in convention, and will not be a member of the new committee; Watson, Curtis and Needham come back with decreased majorities; Babcock was defeated, but that is not a victory for the tariff revisionists, as Babcock has been urging his party for the last five years to reduce some of the schedules. On the other hand, McCleary, of Minnesota, has been forced into retirement. He has been the malcontent of the standpatters in the house, and during the last two campaigns his tariff speeches have been sent broadcast over the country by the Republican committee. In addition, Cummins wins in Iowa and the stand-pat congressmen are all reduced.

There will be three vacancies on the committee to be filled by the speaker in the next congress.

Should William Alden Smith be elected to the senate in Michigan, there will be four vacancies on the committee on ways and means. The new selections will undoubtedly be the subject of determined controversy among the Republicans.

Chairman Griggs, of the Democratic committee, believes the election proves one thing, and that is that the tariff is the issue upon which the Democrats have a chance of winning two years hence.

The state of Kentucky is the only place in the country where the Republicans did anything of an encouraging nature. The Democratic committee had banked upon the election of the Democratic candidates in the Third Ninth and Tenth districts, and the fact that the Republicans carried them has been a severe disappointment to Chairman Griggs and his associates, who had hoped that the Democratic primary would not endanger the congressional districts.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY

In New Orleans.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal says: "A beautiful double wedding occurred Thursday at Safford, in the Presbyterian church. At 9 o'clock James Faust, of Paducah, Ky., and Miss Grace Craven were married. Rev. J. M. Plekens, of Lexington, officiating. Thirty minutes later Curry Duck, of Nashville, and Miss Amanda Hinkle approached the chancel of the church and Rev. William Thorne, a Presbyterian minister of McKenzie, advanced to the front and performed the ceremony for them. The young couples are well known and prominently connected. They left at once on an extended bridal trip to Chicago, Niagara Falls and other places."

A telegram from Lexington, Tenn., says of a wedding which is of local interest: "The most elaborate and artistic affair of the kind Lexington has known in years was the marriage at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon of Frank Bennett, of Washington, D. C., to Miss Viola Nell Clarke, of this place. In the Methodist Episcopal church, the bride's father, Presiding Elder J. G. Clarke, officiating."

The wedding of Mr. A. L. Livingston, of Paducah, to Miss Martha Osterman, of Milwaukee, Wis., took place on Wednesday at Milwaukee. Mr. Livingston is a prominent young man, a member of the M. Livingston wholesale grocery firm. He was accompanied to Milwaukee by his mother, Mrs. M. Livingston, and brother, Lee Livingston. After an extended bridal trip to Boston and other eastern points they will be at home in Paducah.

Mrs. Bezie Campbell Virgo, of Paducah, and Mr. Harwood Sinton, of England, were married in London on Wednesday. They will come to Paducah this month en route to Mexico, where the groom has extensive mining interests.

About People.

Mrs. William Carroll, of Memphis, who has been visiting Mrs. George Flournoy, has returned home.

Miss Lena Dollar, of Princeton, Ky., is the guest of Misses Rella and Frances Coleman, on West Jefferson street. The Misses Coleman will accompany her home Wednesday to visit in Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thompson returned this week from Chicago and other northwestern points, where they went on their bridal tour. They are at home at 621 North Sixth street.

Mrs. Laura Fowler, Mrs. Bertie Campbell, Mrs. Armour Gardner and Mrs. Milton Cope made the trip to Evansville this week on the Joe Fowler. They were the guests of Mrs. Fowler.

Mrs. William Owen Bailey, of Louisville, who has been the guest of the Misses Rieke this week, left today to visit a aunt in Hickman. Mrs. Bailey will make a longer stay here on her return from Hickman. She is always popular in Paducah, where she lived previous to her marriage.

Mrs. Roy W. McKinney, president of the Kentucky U. D. C., and Mrs. Luke Russell left Saturday for Gulfport, Miss., to attend the national U. D. C. convention there the coming week. They will represent the Paducah chapter. Mrs. Bertie F. Campbell, who is also a delegate from the local chapter, may go next week. Mrs. Sol Lesser left Monday evening for Hot Springs, Ark., to join her sister, Miss Fannie Abrams, who formerly lived in Paducah. Miss Abrams' friends will be glad to learn that her health is much improved. It is probable that she will make her home at Hot Springs.

Miss Susie Thompson leaves tonight for Clarksdale, Miss., to attend the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Scott and Mr. Emmett Taylor, of Memphis, Tenn., on the 14th.

Miss Marshall of Missoula, Mont., and Miss Hallie Richmond, of Clinton, who have been the guests of Mrs. Hal S. Corbett this week, will return to Clinton today. Miss Marshall will come back to Paducah before leaving for her western home.

Miss Reed Watt, of Frankfort, will arrive this evening to visit her cousin, Mrs. Leslie Soule, and attend the Soule-Coolidge wedding.

Miss Ethel Morrow returned home last night from an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. Dixon Watts of New York city.

Miss Blanche Hills and Miss Belle Cave who have been making a round of visits to school friends in Virginia, go today to Lynchburg where they will be in the wedding party of Miss Belle Almond, a cousin of Miss Cave. They will return home after the wedding.

METROPOLIS GAME CALLED OFF TODAY

Local Boys Required Roster to Keep Off "Ringers."

Team Is Enjoying Outing on Tennessee River With Superintendent Litch Today.

NEW ROOMS BEING FITTED UP

Members of the Metropolis High school team are alleged to have written the Roy L. Culley football team, of this city, for a date, saying that a game with the H. L. C. team was preferable to one with "those big headed high school boys." Because of the statement the game between the Paducah and Metropolis team scheduled for Metropolis today was called off.

The Metropolis team has always been heavier than the Paducah High school eleven, and it is stated carried semi-professional players. The team management was required to furnish a roster of its players. This precluded the possibility of "ringers," and prompted the action of the Illinois team in writing to the Culley eleven here.

Launch Party.

Supt. C. M. Lieb is this afternoon on the river with the Paducah High school football team, treating the boys to a launch party. He is using his gasoline boat, and will go up the Tennessee river into the woods.

New Rooms Fitted Up.

Today all furniture was moved from Supt. Lieb's office on the first floor of the Washington building and desks installed. This room will be used to take care of the overflow of primary grade pupils in the Washington and Jefferson buildings. The work of fitting out the basement room for the school board and superintendent is progressing and the office will be ready for occupancy by Tuesday.

At the McKinley building the work of fitting up the new room has been delayed by plastering. It is assured that the work will be done immediately, and the room prepared for service by Wednesday.

More Heat at Less Cost

Perfect Control Over Fire

The fumes which ordinarily arise from the fuel and pass unburned up the chimney in other heaters are all consumed in the Wilson on account of the celebrated Hot Blast Down-Drift. With a given amount of fuel the Wilson will produce about twice the heat of any other heater.

The dampers are so constructed on the Wilson that you have perfect control over the fire which can be regulated to throw out an enormous amount of heat in a short time, or the fire can be held at a moderate heat or by closing the dampers it can be held at a faint glow for a great length of time.

If you have a Wilson your rooms may be always kept at a healthful, even temperature.

This laxative makes —strength

Most physics you have taken no doubt have left you weak. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an exception, because, while it is a laxative, it is at the same time one of the greatest stomach tonics ever compounded.

A physic which leaves you weak is dangerous, because it soon becomes necessary for you to take a drug of some kind before the bowels can be induced to act properly.

When this condition is reached, the patient has lost his strength and may become the victim of all sorts of stomach disorders.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

contains a great deal of pepsin, as its name indicates, and so strengthens the weakest stomach that it can properly and voluntarily perform all its functions.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is pleasant to take and it never causes griping or pains of any sort, and in all cases of stomach disorder is undoubtedly the finest preparation known.

All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

Money back if it doesn't satisfy.

"Seeing the Southwest" EXCURSIONS

Doubtless you have heard of the Bumper Crops which have been raised this year in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Texas and New Mexico. Have you compared them with results obtained in your section? Is your work where you are, bringing you adequate returns for the capital invested and the labor expended? If not, a change would be beneficial perhaps. A visit to the Southwest will open your eyes. Out in Oklahoma the last big land opening is soon to take place; farms are still very cheap in Western Arkansas, Northern Louisiana and the Gulf Coast of Texas. Let us give you full information about these sections. You will want to see them after you have examined our illustrated literature.

One Generation to Another," Etc.

"So," she had said before she laid the letter aside, "he is home again—and he means to marry it through."

While she still sat there the bell rang. When Jack Meredith came into the room she rose to greet him with a smile of welcome.

"Before I shake hands," she said, "tell me if you have been to see your father."

"I went last night—almost straight from the station. The first person I spoke to in London, except a cabman."

So she shook hands.

"You know," she said, without looking at him, "indeed, carefully avoiding doing so—life is too short to quarrel with one's father. At least it may prove too short to make it up again—that is the danger."

"The quarrel was not mine," he said. "I admit that I ought to have known him better. I ought to have spoken to him before asking Millicent. It was a mistake."

Lady Cantourne looked up suddenly. "What was a mistake?"

"Not asking his opinion first."

She turned to the table where his letter lay and dugged the paper pensively.

"I thought, perhaps, that you had found that the other was a mistake—the engagement."

"No," he answered.

"Millicent will be in presently," she said. "She is out riding."

They talked of his life in Africa, of his success with the shikaris, of yet discovery the newspapers were not yet weary, until the bell was heard in the basement, and thereafter Millicent's voice in the hall.

Lady Cantourne rose deliberately and went downstairs to tell her niece that he was in the drawing room, leaving her there waiting alone.

Presently the door opened and Millicent hurried in. She threw her gloves and whip—anywhere—on the door and ran to him.

"Oh, Jack!" she cried.

It was very pretty done. In its way it was a poem.

"And, Jack, do you know," she went on, "all the newspapers have been full of you. You are quite a celebrity. And are you really as rich as they say?"

"I think I can safely say that I am not," he answered.

Lady Cantourne left them there for nearly an hour, in which space of time she probably reflected they could build up as easy a future as was good for them to contemplate. Then she returned to the drawing room, followed by a full sized footman bearing tea.

She was too discreet a woman, too deeply versed in the sudden changes of the human mind and heart, to say anything until one of them should give her a distinct lead. They were not shy and awkward children. Perhaps she reflected that the generation to which they belonged is not one heavily handicapped by too subtle a delicacy of feeling.

Jack Meredith gave her the lead before long.

"Millicent," he said without a vestige of embarrassment, "has consented to be openly engaged now."

Lady Cantourne nodded comprehension.

"I think she is very wise," she said. "I know she is very wise," she added, turning and laying her hand on Jack's arm. The two phrases had quite a different meaning. "She will have a good husband."

"So you can tell everybody now," chimed in Millicent in her silvery way.

Lady Cantourne was not very communicative during that refined little tea a trile, but she listened smilingly to Jack's optimistic views and Millicent's somewhat valueless comments.

"I am certain," said Millicent, at length boldly attacking the question that was in all their minds, "that Sir John will be all right now. Of course, it is only natural that he should not like Jack to get engaged yet. Especially before, when it would have made a difference to him in money, I mean. But now that Jack is independent—you know, Annie, that Jack is richer than Sir John."

Lady Cantourne was rather thoughtful at that moment. She could not help coming back and back to Sir John.

"Of course," she said to Jack, "we must let your father know at once. The news must reach him from an outside source."

"I will write and tell him," said Jack quietly.

Even funerals and lovers must bow to meanness, and Jack Meredith was not the man to resist his welcome.

He saw Lady Cantourne glance at the clock. (Clever as she was, she could not do it without being seen by him.)

So he took his leave, and Millicent went to the head of the stairs with him.

CHAPTER XXI.

OF late Sir John had felt a singular desire to sit down when opportunity should offer, but he had always been found standing on the fourth floor by the hutter, and had old-fashioned that he was, he would not yield to the somewhat angular blandishments of the stiff-backed chair.

He stood for a few moments with his back to the smoldering fire, and being quite alone, he perhaps forgot to stiffen his neck, for his head dropped, his lips were matted; he was a very old man.

A few minutes later, when he strode into the dining room, where butler and footman awaited him, he was erect, imperious, impenetrable.

At dinner it was evident that his keen brain was hard at work. He forgot one or two of the formalities which were religiously observed at that solitary table. He hastened over his wine, and then he went to the library. There he wrote a telegram, slowly, in his firm, ornamental handwriting.

It was addressed to Gordon, Leango, and the gist of it was—"Wire whereabouts of Oswald—when he may be expected home."

At half past eight Jack arrived. Sir John was awaiting him in the library, grudgingly sitting in his high-backed chair, as carefully dressed as for a great reception.

He rose when his son entered the room and they shook hands. There was a certain air of concentration about both, as if they each intended to say more than they had ever said before. The coffee was duly brought. This was a revival of an old custom. In bygone days Jack had frequently come in thus and they had taken coffee before going together in Sir John's carriage to one of the great social functions at which their presence was almost a necessity. Jack had always poured out the coffee tonight he did not offer to do so.

"I came," he said suddenly, "to give you a piece of news which I am afraid will not be very welcome. Millicent and I have decided to make our engagement known."

"You know," said Sir John gravely, "that I am not much given to altering my opinions. I do not say that they are of any value; but, such as they are, I usually hold to them. When you did me the honor of mentioning this matter to me last year, I gave you my opinion."

"And it has in no way altered?"

"In no way. I have found no reason to alter it."

"Will you, at all events, give me your reasons?" he asked. "I am not a child."

"I think," he said, "that it would be advisable not to ask them."

"I should like to know why you object to my marrying Millicent," persisted Jack.

"Simply because I know a fine woman when I see her," retorted Sir John deliberately.

"I am sorry you have said that," said the son.

"Just," continued the father, "as I know a good one."

He paused, and they were both thinking of the same woman, Jocelyn Gordon.

Sir John had his say about Millicent's choice, and his son knew that that was the last word. She was a bad woman. From that point he would never move.

There was a long silence, while the two men sat side by side gazing into the fire.

"I am getting too old to indulge in the luxury of pride," said the father at length. "I will attend your marriage. I will smile and say pretty things to the bridesmaids. Before the world I will consent under the condition that the betrothal does not take place before two months from this date."

"I agree to that," put in Jack.

Sir John rose and stood on the fourth floor, looking down from his great height upon his son.

"But," he continued, "I move in no degree from my original position. I object to Millicent's choice as your wife. But I bow to the force of circumstances. I admit that you have a perfect right to marry whom you choose—in two months' time."

So Jack took his leave.

"In two months' time," repeated Sir John, when he was alone, with one of his twisted, cynical smiles—"In two months' time—and viva verba."

There are some places in the world where a cure seems to brood in the atmosphere. Malaga was one of these.

FISH TO CONTEST FOR PRESIDENCY

Election of Harriman Not Made According To Charter.

Majority of Board of Illinois Central Must Be Residents of Illinois.

STATE LOOKED TO FOR AID.

New York, Nov. 10.—Unless there is a change in the present plan, the election of J. T. Harriman as president of the Illinois Central railroad. This decision was reached today after a long conference between Mr. Fish, former Judge J. H. Dill, and former Judge D. Cady Herlick. Under the present plan Judge Dill will leave for Chicago tomorrow and will hold a conference with Attorney General Stead in Chicago with a view to having the latter bring quo warranto proceedings to oust the ten directors of the company who are non-residents of the state of Illinois.

Although he is not instigating the action, nor can in any way, be said to be back of it, it is stated upon undoubted authority that Governor Deen, who is still in New York, believes that there is merit in the contention that a majority of the board must under the law be residents of the state of Illinois. This opinion, however, may be said to be a "curious" opinion, as Governor Deen has not made a personal examination of the authorities bearing upon the issue.

Expect Stead to Act.

Mr. Herlick today, while not admitting squarely that Mr. Fish had decided to contest the election, declared: "We presume that the attorney general of the state of Illinois will take notice of the matter which has been brought to his attention both directly and by the proceedings of the directors' meeting held here Wednesday. We presume that he will see to it that the law of the state of Illinois is carried out with respect to the Illinois Central board. It is his duty and his alone to bring action and it is a fair presumption that he will take steps to test the question."

"What was your advice to Mr. Fish?" was asked.

"Naturally I cannot speak of that matter, but I can say that I believe that under the provision of the constitution of the state of Illinois for 1870 it is necessary for a majority of the Illinois Central board to be residents of the state."

Consolidation to Work.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—A general investigation of what is known as the Harriman system of railroads, under the authority conferred by law, is one of the subjects to be discussed by the interstate commerce commission.

It was also announced today that the transfer of control of the Illinois Central railroad to the Union Pacific may be made the subject of inquiry at the instance of congress. The fight of the Fish-Harriman interests involved two or three matters that are considered to justify inquiry.

Illinois has a very large interest in the Illinois Central under the charter which gave the road immense concessions in that state, the company contracting to pay the state 7 per cent per annum forever of the gross earnings of its 795 miles of original lines in Illinois.

Second, the Dubuque & Sioux City section of the system holds a valuable land grant from the federal government, whose conditions may be found to afford excuse for federal intervention.

The charge that under Harriman the property will become forthwith a great political road affords opponents of railroad power in politics concern. Under Fish the road went in very little for politics.

Hits at Big Friends.

President Fish has threatened, it is said, that he would retaliate against Harriman by making sensational disclosures concerning the alleged immense land deals, whereby the Harriman system has been benefited to the extent of many millions of dollars.

But there is another and more important phase to which attention has been directed. The Union Pacific and Southern Pacific long have been the most determined opponents of a Panama canal. It would be a dangerous competitor. The fact that freight can be taken from New York to San Francisco in less time by sea (through the canal) than it averages now by rail is something that the general public only recently has come to realize.

Willing to Pay.

In a suit recently tried in a Virginia town a young lawyer of limited experience was addressing the jury on a point of law, when, good-naturedly, he turned to the opposing counsel, a man of much more experience than himself, and asked:

"That's right, I believe, Col. Hopkins?"

Whereupon Hopkins, with a smile of conscious superiority, replied:

"Sir, I have an office in Richmond wherein I shall be delighted to enlighten you on any point of law for a consideration."

The youthful attorney, not in the least abashed, took from his pocket a half-dollar piece, which he offered Col. Hopkins, with this remark:

"No time like the present. Take this, sir, tell us what you know and give me the change."—Harper's Weekly.

"A man is just as old as his blood." So were the blood only kept young, old age would be joyous with the vigor of youth.

Happily, this thing of growing old, of suffering from the diseases of old age, or allowing the blood to grow old, is fast disappearing—thanks to the scientists who have found, who have seen and examined under their microscopes, the cause of old age and old blood. This cause is uric acid.

Uric acid is always present in the blood, gradually accumulating as we grow older and by lodging in the various organs of the body it causes disease—causes the blood to grow "old" and impure, and brings diseases of the kidneys, stomach, heart, bowels and all female disorders and weaknesses.

LIFE PLANT MAKES OLD BLOOD YOUNG

LIFE PLANT is a simple preparation made by scientists to dissolve uric acid. It drives this poison out of the blood, dissolves it out of every diseased organ of the body, and so removes the cause of old age and disease.

LIFE PLANT is a simple harmless tonic solvent of uric acid—a necessity for relieving old age of disease and giving the blood the bright purity of youth. It is a necessity during the summer because the summer's accumulation of uric acid certainly causes the deaths of winter.

Every person past middle age, every person suffering from disease, may have free medical advice and free copy of valuable booklet on the common sense of "Good Health." Write for this book and get a bottle of LIFE PLANT from your druggist. Write to

HEARST IS AFTER M'CLELLAN'S SEAT

McClellan Is After Sculp Or Big Chief Murphy.

Hearst Will Use Office of Attorney General to Secure New Count of Votes.

MAYOR IN TAMMANY AFFAIRS.

New York, Nov. 10.—Fred Oakes, a well known curb broker, offered this morning to bet $1,000 to $10,000 that within one year, W. R. Hearst will be mayor of New York instead of George B. McClellan. It is believed that Oakes bases his predictions and his willingness to put up his money on the fact that William S. Jackson, the Independence League candidate for attorney general, won in Tuesday's election. As soon as he takes his seat, it is expected that Hearst will at once renew his fight for a recount of the ballots in the mayoralty race of last year, through an application to the attorney general for permission to institute quo warranto proceedings. Mr. Jackson has declared on the stump that Hearst was robbed, and has practically put himself on record that he would make an investigation if he was elected.

McClellan After Murphy.

Mayor McClellan has ambitions to control the destinies of Tammany Hall, and with this end in view he is planning to fight for supplanting of "Boss" Murphy by putting up Maurice Featherstone, a great friend of the mayor's, for the place as "Big Chief of the Braves."

INSPECTION

TRIP TAKEN BY BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS YESTERDAY.

Concrete Work Is Found to Be Faulty—Route of Street Car Company Viewed.

The board of public works yesterday afternoon inspected the concrete sidewalks on Fountain avenue, between Jefferson and Monroe streets, and reported that the concrete in many places was soft and would crumble. The defects were noted by the city engineer, who will present the report to Contractor Thomas Bridges' Sons. When the contractors rectify the faults the work will be accepted.

The board of works also went over the route of the street car line out Broadway from Seventeenth street to Nineteenth street and thence to the Mayfield road on Nineteenth street, and will take action Wednesday at the regular board meeting. The matters of widening the all on Broadway beyond Fountain avenue and of putting in a fill and culvert between Broadway and Kentucky avenue on Nineteenth street, have been referred to the board of public works with power to act.

RACE IS NEW TO WHITE MEN.

Reported Discovery of Strange People in the Arctic.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 10.—Details of the finding on Prince Albert Land, in the Arctic, of a people who had never been seen before are given by an officer of the returned revenue cutter Thetis, who learned full details from Captain Klinkenberg, of the steam whaler Olga, who located them.

Last winter, when his steamer was in the ice near Prince Albert Land, Klinkenberg, accompanied by an Eskimo, started inland on a hunting trip. He went 250 miles in a northeasterly direction over the snow, finding traces of people. Other whalers had also seen traces of natives in this region, but never sighted them. Captain Klinkenberg came up with 150 or more, armed with copper knives and bows and arrows. One advanced alone, and the captain laid down his rifle, the native putting down his weapons. By means of signs Klinkenberg learned that, other than an old woman who came from Prince William Land they had never before seen a white person.

He visited the village and found about 600 people, all of whom lived by hunting and fishing. They used the most primitive utensils, fashioned from bone and native copper. Their dress was similar to that of the Greenland natives, made of soft tanned skins, sewed with deer sinews. Their winter houses were of sod, with an inner lining of skins and different in shape from those of other known tribes. They were nomadic. The only article seemingly brought from civilization seen by Captain Klinkenberg, was a piece of steel, evidently from some ship, which was converted into a spearhead.

Dr. Purdy Is Ill.

Dr. A. K. Purdy, of Kuttawa, who was shot several weeks ago by Marshal William McCullough, had a relapse yesterday, and his son, Mr. A. D. Purdy, city, went to Kuttawa yesterday afternoon to attend his bedside. Dr. Purdy had been slowly improving until yesterday.

STATE BREWERS

ELECT F. J. HERGOLD, OF PADUCAH, VICE PRESIDENT.

Condenn County Unit Will and Decide They Will Meet Next October in Louisville.

Lexington, Nov. 10.—The Kentucky Brewers' association, which closed its seventh annual meeting here Friday at noon, after being in session two days elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Frank Fehr, Louisville, president; F. J. Hergold, Paducah, vice president; Frank P. Senn, Louisville, treasurer; Charles D. Goepfer, Louisville, secretary.

The new executive board, also elected at this meeting, is composed of the following: John Gind, Jr., Lexington; Chas. Wiedeman, Newport; William Redlar, Covington, and William A. Pohl, Cincinnati.

Louisville was selected as the place and October as the time for the next meeting, the executive board to determine the exact dates.

After the business session Thursday afternoon, at which the report of the executive board was read, resolutions were adopted condemning the county local option bill.

CHURCHILL MAY GO TO SENATE.

Deal to Give Another Burnham's Place Reported.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 10.—With Charles M. Floyd, Republican, ten votes short of the majority required for the election of a governor, according to the unofficial returns, although he has 3,000 plurality, the way is open for the election of Winston Churchill, the author, as United States senator from New Hampshire, to succeed Henry E. Burnham, Republican, whose term expires in January. Under the law when no candidate has a majority of the popular vote for governor, the legislature elects an executive. As the Republicans have a clear majority of 100 on joint ballot, this ordinarily would mean Floyd's election, but fully fifty Republican members are Churchill Republican club men. It was reported last night that the Churchill club men would combine with the Democrats in the legislature and elect Nathan C. Jameson, the Democratic candidate, governor in return for votes for a Churchill Republican for senator when Burnham's term expires.

CUBAN LIBERALS WANT OFFICE.

Refusal of Governor Magoon to Oust Moderates Results in Action.

Havana, Nov. 10.—The growing sentiment of dissatisfaction among liberals in consequence of lack of success of their efforts to induce Governor Magoon to dismiss moderates from important posts in the insular administration, replacing them with liberals, crystallized to night at a secret meeting of the liberal committee on appointments. Special objection was made to the reappointment of a police captain named Reguera, a moderate. It was decided to appoint a committee to appeal to the governor for recognition of liberals. Governor Aleman of Santa Clara, has dismissed Garcia Viera, a moderate, from post of mayor of Cienfuegos. He was opposed by the liberals on account of his alleged complicity in a murder at Cienfuegos last year. It is believed this removal will tend to the restoration of tranquility in that vicinity, where there has been discontent and considerable disorder.

The fact that Messrs. Stoddard Robertson and Herbert Richardson, Paducah young men, have a fortune, in a patent, is being daily demonstrated in tests of their device on the Paducah district of the Illinois Central. It is an automatic locking switch (and one has been placed at the main switch at the passenger station here. Switchmen have but to insert the key and the switch is open. To lock it only requires to pull the lever down. Several switches have been installed on the district and have proven successful. It is understood the young men have been offered a cash price for the invention, the figures going into the thousands.

Ride on Card—Dismissed.

Sherley Northcutt, a lineman, was presented in police court this morning for a breach of the peace. He was also suspected of having stolen a ride from Memphis on an Illinois Central train. He showed his union card and Police Judge Puryear called in officers of the Home Telephone company, where Northcutt stated he had a job. Judge Puryear dismissed the case, Northcutt showing that he secured his transportation on his union card and was guilty of doing no more than playfully striking a companion with his gloves and hat. His was the only case on the docket.

Successful Young Man.

Mr. Edward M. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Williams, is visiting his parents for a few days on his way to Monterey, Mexico. Mr. Williams has accepted a position as superintendent in a rolling mill in that city at a large salary. Though only 23 years old, Mr. Williams has risen rapidly in his profession. For the last several years he has been superintendent of the Tennessee Iron and Coal company, of Birmingham, one of the largest rolling mills in the south.

Case Goes to Jury.

The case of James Wilhelm against J. M. Worlen was given to the jury at 11 o'clock this morning and at noon the jury was dismissed until Monday and court adjourned until that day. Wilhelm sues for $2,500 damages and expenses sustained in defending himself in the Livingston circuit court in suits brought against him by Worlen.

HOW IS YOUR ASSESSMENT THIS YEAR?

Some of the assessment companies have recently gone under. Those companies remaining in business are raising their rates on old men to the point where they are being frozen out, though many of them have paid up faithfully for years and years.

The old reliable Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., insures men up to seventy years of age, and while her rates are about 6 per cent lower than other old line companies, her policy contract much more liberal and dividends (paid annually) larger, she will loan you 20 per cent of the first premium and her contract provides for liberal loan features thereafter. If you are interested, telephone 1083-a.
